

PRESS RELEASE

Criminal Justice Students Secure Win At Crime Scene Competition

Wayne, NJ – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – Criminal Justice students of Passaic County Technical Institute (PCTI) recently participated in the Crime Scene Investigation competition held at Caldwell College. Out of 13 participating high schools, the team took home third place!

Thanks to PCTI Instructors Mr. Swartz and Mr. Alexander who volunteered their time after school and on Saturdays over the past two months to ensure that students were well-prepared for the competition. Congratulations on this much deserved win!

Photo Caption: PCTI Instructors Mr. Alexander and Mr. Swartz join winning Criminal Justice students Nancy Contreras (Paterson), Elianni De La Cruz (Passaic), Camelis Nazario (Paterson), Cindy Nazario (Paterson), Antonio Perez (Clifton), Rossana Valdivia (Clifton), Miriam Vazquez (Paterson), Maria Vega (Passaic), and Melanie Ventura (Clifton) in celebrating their win.