PCTI Students Give the Gift of Good Meals

Wayne, NJ – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – Student Council/Interact members of Passaic County Technical Institute (PCTI) are once again putting the needs of others before their own with the annual Food Drive event. The outreach initiative inspired hundreds of donations from members of the entire PCTI family. This year, the Wayne community joined in the spirit of giving as students collected grocery donations from generous Shop Rite patrons.

An incredible 3000 pounds of food was collected and delivered to the Wayne Food Pantry and the Cumac Echo Food Bank in Paterson. Sincere thanks to those who made the event an outstanding success, exhibiting warm generosity for which the holiday season is known.

PCTI Student Council/Interact members Jessenia Abreu (Clifton), Yeasmin Ali (Haledon), Unique Bacote (Woodland Park), Laura Cadena (Paterson), Ana Garcia (Passaic), Nia Gaskins (Paterson), Nicole Gravier (Paterson), Caroline Hidalgo (Paterson). Leilanie Hinton (Paterson), Na'Angel Hodge (Clifton), Jay'ci Chevalier (Passaic), Jaslyn Mosquera (Clifton), Dale Owens (Paterson), Anne Pino (Clifton), Aleany Robles (Paterson), Adriana Sanabria (Paterson), Chelsey Sanjuan (Clifton), Sarah Shannon (Clifton), Jennifer Taype (Paterson), Emily Ulerio (Clifton), and Celete Reyes (Passaic) join advisors Rosa Astacio- Michelini and Rachel Sillman in gathering donations for the annual Food Drive event.
