Golf Classic Rallies Scholarships “For the Kids”

Wayne, NJ – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE –Passaic County Technical Institute’s (PCTI) Education Foundation is digging deep with the 17th Annual Golf Scholarship Classic. The exceptional cause raises funds for student scholarships and teacher grants to be distributed throughout the school year. This year’s proceeds totaled more than $80,000!

Held at the exclusive Knoll Country Club West in Parsippany on October 6th, the event welcomed 128 golfers and additional dinner guests to come out in support of the wonderful cause. The weather was perfect for a rousing game of golf with friends and colleagues. Those in attendance enjoyed a fun day of play, a delectable dinner, and other exciting activities.

Fundraising efforts are donated to support the educational endeavors of PCTI students and teachers. Since the Education Foundation’s inception in 1998, total proceeds have exceeded $983,000!

On the extremely successful event Education Foundation President Al Alexander had this to say, “This was a phenomenal year for our Golf Scholarship Classic. All proceeds raised will surely aid in the educational endeavors of students of Passaic County Technical Institute. Thank you to all who volunteered their time and effort, and to those who generously supported this outstanding event.”

Ronni Nochimson (Woodland Park), Mae Remer (Clifton), Vera Giblin (Pompton Plains), Yesenia Berta (Wayne) and Marinelly Tavares (Paterson) welcome guests to the PCTI Education Foundation's Golf Scholarship Classic.
