PCTI’s HOSA Services Community with Annual Blood Drive

Wayne, NJ – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE –Passaic County Technical Institute’s (PCTI) HOSA students are serving the community in a very big way, with their Annual Blood Drive event! By working in conjunction with Community Blood Services (located in Paramus, NJ), HOSA students aided in collecting 147 units of blood from 188 participants. Twenty-nine students registered with the bone marrow registry.

It took two months of planning to organize the highly successful event. Students designed posters for promotional purposes. Another student created key chains to be distributed to those who donated.
