PCTI’s Fall Scholar Athlete Challenge Crowns Winners

Wayne, NJ – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – Student athletes of Passaic County Technical Institute (PCTI) consistently strive for excellence on the field and in their academic careers. This year, Principal Dr. Michael Parent issued the Fall Scholar Athlete Challenge to all sports participants. Based upon the grades of Marking Period 1 and a combined GPA, the following teams were recognized for their hard work and their outstanding achievements.

In third place was Varsity Girls Soccer with a GPA of 3.642. Second place went to Girls Varsity Tennis for their combined GPA of 3.820. Congratulations to first place recipients, the Girls Varsity Volleyball team, on their fantastic achievement of a 4.019 combined GPA!

Congratulations to PCTI’s Girls Varsity Volleyball team for receiving first place in the school’s Fall Scholar Athlete Challenge.
